TWO LIGHTERS ADDED TO WORKHOUSE FLEET

Vessels to Be Used in Operations of District Institution at Occoquan.

Two lighters built at Baltimore for the District service have arrived at the sand wharf, foot of 14th street southwest, and will be used in connection with the transportation of stores to Occoquan and the bringing to this city of the bricks and other output of the various industries at the workhouse. The lighters, one of which is 50 feet long, 24 feet wide and five feet deep, and the other 65 feet long, 18 feet wide and three feet deep, arrived here yesterday in tow of the tug Grace, which brought them from their builder's yard to this city.

To Carry Stores and Material.

The smaller lighter is to be housed over and will be used in the carrying of stores and material that must be protected from the weather. The framework and material for the lighter, which will be erected on the scow by the workhouse force.

In the past year a tugboat and several new lighters have been added to the fleet, the equipment under the control of the District workhouse authorities, who now have two tugs and a dozen lighters in the fleet.

YOUNG BRIDE IS DEAD AS RESULT OF POISON

Took Deadly Drug a Month Ago, Following Misunderstanding With Husband.

Mrs. Ruth Catherine Hales, eighteen years old, wife of Pearce E. Hales, a salesman in a music store, last night died in her apartment at the Rockingham, 1317 Rhode Island avenue northwest, as a result of poison she took more than a month ago. Coroner Nevitt was told she took the poison with nutmeg.

Mrs. Hales, a bride of three months, and her husband resided in the 1100 block on P street when the poison was taken. It is stated, following a misunderstanding between husband and wife, and since then the patient expressed sorrow for her act and was anxious to get well.

Coroner Nevitt was told that Mrs. Hales dissolved six poisonous tablets in a glass of water and consumed about one-half the mixture.

Saw Her Take Poison.

Her husband was in the room when she swallowed the poison, it is stated, but he had no idea what was in the glass. His wife told him she had taken poison.

Dr. Llewellyn Eliot was summoned to the house. He administered antidotes, relieving the patient of as much of the poison as possible, and later Dr. Montgomery Hunter attended her. The police knew nothing of the affair until after the death had been reported to the coroner.

Mrs. Hales' maiden name was Lausch. Her funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The funeral will be private.

WILLIAM D. HENRY SENDS BULLET THROUGH BRAIN

Member of the District Bar Commits Suicide at His Chevy Chase Home.

William D. Henry, a member of the local bar, last night committed suicide in his home at 10 Kirk street, Chevy Chase, Md., by shooting himself. He was alone in the house when the shot was fired, but his wife was in front of the house, having just returned from a visit to this city.

Mrs. Henry heard the report of the revolver and rushed into the house, where she found her husband lying on the floor. Blood was gushing from a wound the bullet had made in the right side of her husband's head, and the weapon with which the wound had been inflicted was clutched in the hand of the dying man.

Bullet Penetrates Brain.

Dr. Thomas K. Conrad reached the house a few minutes after the shot was fired. He found that the bullet had entered the brain. Mr. Henry died two hours after the shooting.

State's Attorney Spates of Montgomery county, Md., was communicated with, and he asked Dr. Conrad to give the necessary death certificate. The cause was given as suicide, according to the information given him, and the attorney could see no reason for making a further investigation.

Relatives and friends of Mr. Henry say they know of no reason for the deed. He had been slightly ill the past few days. It is stated, but he showed no signs of despondency.

Native of Virginia.

The deceased, who was fifty-eight years old, was a native of Richmond county, Va., but had resided in and about this city since he was a young man. He was associated in the legal profession with John U. Gardiner, and leaves a wife and two sons. Funeral services will be held Friday, and the interment will be at Glenwood.

ROCKVILLE AND COUNTY NEWS ITEMS AND NOTES

Witnesses Summoned for Tomorrow in Fisher Trial—Postponement Suggested.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ROCKVILLE, Md., March 25, 1914.

Feeling that the second trial of William J. Fisher of Washington, who is charged with the murder of William L. Aldorfer, a newspaper writer, in the latter's home at Chevy Chase, this county, last August, should not take place until the feeling against the defendant, aroused by exaggerated reports, has died out, thereby insuring him a fair and impartial trial, Thomas Dawson, one of Fisher's counsel, yesterday asked Judge Peter in the circuit court here to continue the case until the November term of court.

Judge Peter held that it was a matter for the state's attorney to decide. State's Attorney Spates would not agree to the proposition, whereupon both the prosecution and defense directed that the witnesses in the case be summoned for tomorrow morning, the date set by the court, which is interpreted as meaning that a change of venue will not be asked, as had been intimated.

The counsel for the defendant are hopeful that the state's attorney will yet agree to let the case go over until the November term.

Arrested on Grave Charge.

Harvey Cornwall, a young resident of this vicinity, was arrested by Sheriff Peyton Whalen yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with entering the home of George Shaw, near Rockville, and stealing a watch, several rings and other jewelry of the value of about $100. He was committed to jail in default of bail. His case will come up for trial at the term of criminal court which begins here tomorrow.

The case of Mrs. Lillian Posey of Rockville against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, which was an action for damages in the amount of $5,000, has been continued to Friday, when the case will come up for trial. The case was introduced in the house of delegates at a special session of the house, for which point the plaintiff had been unable to decide on a date, and she was required to walk a distance of half a mile at a late hour at night. She was represented by Attorney H. Maurice Talbot.

Hospital Fund in Pending Bill.

The omnibus appropriation bill, introduced in the state senate Monday night, which carries appropriations for various hospitals, schools, etc., includes an appropriation of $5,000 a year for the next two years for use of the county commissioners for this county for maintenance of patients in Washington hospitals at a per diem of not more than $1.25 for each patient. The bill contains a similar provision for Prince Georges county.

George A. Selby Dies Suddenly.

George A. Selby, sixty-eight years old, died suddenly of heart disease Monday night at his home, near Glen, this county. He retired apparently in good health, but the following morning was found dead in bed. He was unmarried. He was a friend of H. H. Mansfield, who has just undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Marshall and asked her if they had engagements for May 20.

"I'll go if you will let me stand on my hind legs and speak offhand on whatever subject I choose," said he, turning from the phone. The offer was accepted.

QUARTERS OBTAINED FOR GREEK PAGEANT

Rehearsals to Be Held in Old Builders' Exchange—Committee to Recommend Charities.

Arrangements were made yesterday for the use of the old Builders' Exchange, facing the Masonic Temple plaza, as the headquarters of the committee of the Greek pageant-drama to be produced here in May under the auspices of the Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce and Retail Merchants' Association. These headquarters are to be opened Monday morning. The entire second floor will be used for office and rehearsal purposes. Permission was given for its utilization by the Washington Loan and Trust Company, agents for the property. The big floor space, it is pointed out, will be ideal for rehearsal purposes. Until the establishment of these permanent quarters the pageant committee is carrying on its work at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

To Make Recommendations.

It is expected that the committee on charities, consisting of William F. Guide, Cuno H. Rudolph and John Poole, at the meeting Friday noon of the pageant committee, will make a preliminary recommendation of the charities that are to be benefited through the production.

TO INDORSE BOND ISSUE.

Mass Meeting at Alexandria County Courthouse Tonight.

A mass meeting has been called at Alexandria county courthouse tonight to endorse the bond issue now before the county for extensive improvements and to form plans to bring the matter before the people in a special election in the near future. State Senator R. E. Thornton of Fairfax, Delegate J. Fred Merrill of Alexandria, and Representative C. C. Carlin will address the meeting, which will start at 8 o'clock. A large number of the school boards of the three districts are expected to attend.

The reception committee for the speakers of the evening consists of Charles Rauscher, George H. Tucker, D. Torrison, Judge R. G. Pinney, R. C. L. Moncreux and Frank Lyon.

Lloyd F. Everett is chairman of the committee, which will report tonight the result of its visit to the officials of the Rosslyn Gas Company, seeking a better gas supply for the county.

SONG RECITAL FOR BLIND IS GIVEN BY MISS WILSON

Entire Program of German, Scotch, Irish and English Songs Sung From Memory.

Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the President, gave a song recital last evening for the blind and a few additional guests at the Library Congress. The mission was by card and though practically restricted to the blind and their escorts, the seating capacity of the room was exhausted and many stood throughout the recital. Miss Wilson has a lyric soprano voice of pleasing quality and resonance and gave her entire program of German, Scotch, Irish and English songs from memory, her singing showing conscientious attention to detail and intelligence in interpretation.

Before beginning the program, she announced that the music of the first number, "Liebeslied," by Brahms, had been mislaid and that she would sing instead, "Ich Liebe Dich," by Beethoven, which was followed by "Good Night," by Mozart, "Ave Maria," by Schubert, "Faithful Johnnie," by Beethoven, "Bonnie Charlie Noo Awa," and "Lezzie Lindsay," both old Scotch. "The Low-backed Cart," old Irish, "Jack-a-Haberdash," old Scotch, "Nymphs and Shepherds," by Purcell, "The Sheep Herder," by La Forge, "Where the Bee Sucks," by Anacreon, "Faithful Johnnie," by Beethoven, "The Land of the Sky," conveniently reached by through train service over Southern Railway, and "The Land of the Sky," by Anacreon, 700 10th and 9th Sts. n.w.—Advertisement.

MR. MARSHALL A BUSY MAN.

Performs Vice Presidential Duties Under Perplexing Handicaps.

Vice President Marshall is a busy man these days. He has to attend to duties usually assigned to his secretary, and his stenographer, besides presiding over the Senate and otherwise acting as Vice President of the United States. When a North Carolina delegation yesterday asked the Vice President to go to Charlotte May 29 to make an address he was unable to decide on acceptance because he could not find his date book. "I have no help today," said Mr. Marshall. "My secretary has just married and is off on a bridal tour; my stenographer has the measles; my messenger has gone to the hospital, and Mrs. Marshall has just undergone an operation for appendicitis."

Mrs. Marshall and asked her if they had engagements for May 20.

"I'll go if you will let me stand on my hind legs and speak offhand on whatever subject I choose," said he, turning from the phone. The offer was accepted.

FAMOUS CHEF DEAD.

H. H. Williams Once Ruled Over White House Kitchen.

Howard H. Williams, a steward and chef, who has been in the service of many prominent men since the civil war, including President Arthur, former Representative Samuel Hooper, Senator Conkling and Senator William B. Allison, died at his residence, 1451 Corcoran street northwest, Sunday afternoon. Funeral services are to be held this afternoon from James Brothers' undertaking chapel at 10th and I streets northwest.

The entire estate of the deceased, who was one of the founders of the "Diamond Back Club," which met once a month during the season of oysters and terrapin, was born in Baltimore in 1837. Coming to Washington at the opening of the civil war, he entered the service of Mr. Hooper, whose home was on the corner now occupied by the Shoreham Hotel. Here Mr. Williams' skill as a chef met with the appreciation of such men as James G. Blaine, Charles Sumner, Zach. Chandler, Moses Grinnell, Gov. William Sprague and many other famous men of the day.

Upon Mr. Hooper's death in 1875 Mr. Williams entered the service of Senator James Conkling, whose home became the White House under President Arthur. He superintended the household of the late Senator Allison until the senator's death. At the time of his death Mr. Williams was custodian of the Georgetown custom house.

CHINAMAN WINS CASE.

Lew Wing, a Chinaman, yesterday proved his right to remain in this country when he was examined before United States Commissioner Anson S. Taylor. Wing, who is a native of China, had been excluded from the country on the basis of Chinese exclusion act, but proved that he had been tried and discharged on the same charge ten years ago in Wilmington. Since that time he has lived in this city.

WATER WAGON FOR HIM.

J. H. Albers to Lose Home if He Indulges. Is Will's Provision.

John H. Albers must refrain from the use of beer, whisky or wine if he would have the use of his real estate, one of the apartments left by his father-in-law, Benjamin N. Hawes. This provision is contained in the will of Mr. Hawes, dated September 5, 1912, and just offered for probate.

The entire estate of the testator is given to his wife, Harriet E. Hawes, during her life or widowhood. At her death or remarriage the United States Trust Company is to take possession of the estate and hold it for the benefit of the daughter, Hazel Kirk Albers, and her heirs. It is stipulated in the will that after the trust company takes charge the daughter is to have the use of the flats she may choose, but only with the express understanding that her husband, John H. Albers, is to share the apartment if he drinks beer, wine or whisky. The trust company is enjoined to enforce this condition.

According to a petition filed by Attorney H. Winslow Wheatley, the estate left by Mr. Hawes comprises realty valued at $10,000 and an annual income of $2,000 from an invention.
